Some of the foreign representatives, companies of the Messe Berlin group of companies, processors as well as third party providers of social media are located in third countries outside the EU, which do not provide the same level of data protection as the EU, in particular due to the absence of a legal framework, independent supervisory authorities or data protection rights and remedies. A copy of the safeguards can be obtained upon request (e.g., by e-mail – for contact details see section 1 above).

The data transmission to the foreign representatives, other users, website visitors, recipients and third party providers of social media is necessary for the performance of a contract (Art. 49 (1) (b) GDPR); otherwise it takes place on the basis of your explicit consent to the transfer despite the missing level of adequate data protection in the third country outside the EU and the risks associated with this (Art. 49 (1) (a) GDPR).

In so far as the processing takes place on the basis of consent or a legitimate interest of Messe Berlin GmbH, the data in question will no longer be processed for the purpose in question, and where appropriate, erased after receipt of your revocation of your consent or your objection to the processing, unless the conditions for a statutory exception are met. Notwithstanding the foregoing, personal data which are subject to retention obligations under trade or tax laws will only be deleted after the expiry of the statutory retention periods.

To exercise your rights you can contact the controller (for contact details see section 1 above or mes-expo@messe-berlin.de). If you are of the opinion that the data processing violates data protection law, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the competent supervisory authority of your choice (Art. 77 GDPR in conjunction with section 19 of the German Federal Data Protection Act (Bundesdatenschutzgesetz)).
